Whispering Wisteria
A Collaboration Collection

Fromental and Harris Reed share a belief that design should provoke, not simply decorate. Our connection was immediate — “an enchanting moment,” says Reed. “We completely bonded over our obsession with creating something otherworldly.”

The collaboration began when Reed renovated the London home he shares with his husband, for which we designed four bespoke wallcoverings. It was a meeting of kindred curiosities — the blending and breeding of techniques between fashion and interiors. Our process was instinctive and meticulous, the outcome unapologetically bold.

Each delicate ellipse in Whispering Wisteria is first drawn in pencil before being painted by hand, capturing the tousled beauty of wisteria in full bloom. Expressive brushwork brings clusters of painterly petals to life across silk, while foiled markings bring texture, gently animating the surface as the composition drifts gracefully from above.
