Collaboration Collection

A contemporary interpretation of the traditional Chinoiserie style, An English Butterfly Garden takes inspiration from Katherine Pooley's own flower-filled garden in the heart of Oxfordshire.

With every piece sold, a donation will be made to support Butterfly Conservation, a wonderful charity, whose work protects and conserves endangered British butterflies and their habitats.

Hand-painted in a loose style and embroidered by our artists on a silk ground, the design features many of Katharine's favourite flora and fauna, including honeysuckle, camellias, duchess peonies, jasmine and forget-me-nots. A nibbling dormouse peeks through the leafy grove and a kaleidoscope of butterflies flutter above.
