

FRÖMENTAL

Bruyère
Lumière

Bold, dramatic and maximal, Bruyère blends the abstract and the figurative in its rich and multi-dimensional detail. Inspired by both the phenomenal mid-century tapestries of Jean Lurçat, and the stunning aesthetic of Japanese Edo era screens, Bruyère offers a luxuriously abundant scene for a style-defining interior.

FRONT COVER IMAGE Bruyère in Weld
RIGHT-HAND IMAGE Bruyère in Angers

Bruyère is entirely hand-painted on silk; the paint has a directional quality, mimicking the constraints of tapestry design.
